

Unite Overview:

Unite is focused on "Revitalizing Squadrons." Unit commanders are in the best position to execute resources that benefit Airmen under their authority. This initiative provides commanders with the funding to initiate programs that help their squadron. This program will benefit all Airmen in a unit; Active, Reserve, and Civilian (appropriated and non-appropriated employees) directly assigned to the squadron.

Unite funds are allocated based on per capita end strength, according to the Air Force Personnel Center (AFPC), Retrieval Applications Web (RAW).

Funds for Fun!

FAQ...

Who can use Unite funds? All active duty, reservists and civilians (APF and NAF) assigned to an Air Force squadron, unit, or staff group are allowed to utilize Unite funds. Your installation's Community Cohesion Coordinator (C3) can give you all the info.

What can Unite funds be used for? Unite funding can be used for activities and food. The activities must be team building in nature and the food must be offered in conjunction with the activity. Funds cannot be used for holiday parties.

Can Unite funds be used to purchase food for our meeting or resiliency training? Unite is intended to provide a teambuilding experience and must be based on group recreation. However, if a team building recreational event occurs before or after your meeting or training – the recreational portion of the event may qualify for Unite funds.

Why you should make time for recreational activities...

- ▶ The Air Force expects leaders to take care of their Airmen's comprehensive fitness – mental, physical, social, and spiritual.
- ▶ Science shows that having fun enhances work productivity, increases confidence, builds trust, improves communication and reduces stress.
- ▶ Connection is a proven protective factor of suicidal and violent behaviors.
- ▶ Feedback from participants proves that Unite works!
